_____)

Accordingly, to the extent that Defendant's recent pro se letters (Docs. 44, 45, 46) can be construed as motions, they are DENIED. See Order filed on July 7, 2023 (Doc. 29).

Defendant is admonished that he should not submit further pro se filings except for those that are expressly authorized by the Local Rules or the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. Should he have questions in that regard, Defendant is encouraged to confer with his attorney about those matters.

It is so ordered.
